

The Sir Dawson Bates Room

Located on the ground floor of the original 19th Century Magherabuoy House, this room is an ideal location for more boardroom meetings, training or as a breakout room. It also offers a stylish setting for small dinner parties. The room has its' own working fireplace and features period detail in its bay window, sideboard and cornicing.

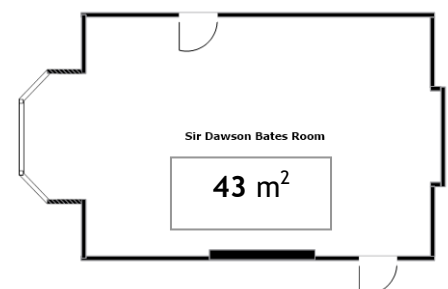

Room Dimensions	Theatre	Team Circle	Boardroom	Classroom	U-Shape	Cabaret	Dinner (Round Tables)	Dinner (Block Table)
7.9m x 5.5m	40	20	20	24	18	24	32	24

Room Details
Ground Floor	Yes
Natural Light	Yes
Dimmable Lighting	Yes
Blackout	No
Air Conditioning	No
Wi-fi	Yes
Wired Internet	Yes
13 Amp Electrical Sockets	4 Doubles

Audio-Visual Systems
Fitted or Portable A/V Systems	Portable
Lectern	No
Data Projector	One
Fitted or Portable Projection Screen	Portable
DVD / VHS Combi Player	Yes
Amplifier & Speakers	Yes
Microphone	No
Laptop	On Request

Room Location: Ground Floor, Magherabuoy House

The Sir Dawson Bates Room

This room is named after the Northern Ireland Minister for Home Affairs, who resided in Magherabuoy House from 1934 until 1947. It can be set up in a variety of layouts, depending on your needs.

